

This architectural floor plan shows a building layout with three main stages. Stage 1 is a large rectangular area on the left. Stage 2 is a large rectangular area on the top right. Stage 3 is a narrow vertical rectangular area on the bottom right. The plan includes various rooms, corridors, and structural elements like walls, doors, and stairs. There are also some smaller rooms and corridors connecting the main stages.

STAGE 2

STAGE I

STAGE 3